THE HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1926

THE day which at this time four years ago was so far in the future has arrived at last. With what joy and hard work these four years have been filled!

Although not organized socially as a class during our Freshman year, we progressed as well as any "Freshies" possibly could in our studies and athletics. In October the upperclass members of the G. A. A. initiated the girls. No one was sorry when they had finished their stunts!

In a theme contest conducted for High School pupils by The Flexible Shoe Store of New Bedford, Muriel Chamberlain and Louise Lopes won prizes.

It was during this year that "The Huttlestonian" which has proven such a success was started. We are the first class to have had a school magazine for four years.

In the early part of September, 1923, we elected the following officers:

President	DOROTHEA PAULL
Secretary	MARGARET MANGHAN
Treasurer	WALTER SPOONER

This year the class established a splendid record in athletics. We had members on the varsity football and varsity basketball teams, and in the orchestra. Our honor roll was surely a credit to our class.

Our initiation into High School socials was in the form of a Valentine party.

It was during the summer of this year that we lost Lydia Shurtleff, one of the noblest members of our class.

The Junior year was the happiest of our High School career. Champions like "Pat" Sullivan, "Cuffy" Tunstall, and Paul Cieurzo enabled our football team to sweep all opponents before them, and win for us the Bristol County Championship. The girls, too, did well in athletics taking first place in the inter-state track meet.

As Walter Spooner left school in the fall, it was necessary to elect a new treasurer. Beulah Champegny was chosen to fill his place. At the same time, James O'Leary was elected to the office of Vice-President.

It was during this year that the Student Council, School Saving's Bank, Literary Club, and Traffic Squad were organized.

Junior Day, an event initiated by our class was certainly a success. We did feel big marching into the auditorium with our green and gold ribbons. Can we forget that condescending gaze fixed upon us by the Seniors?

This year seems to have been short, sweet, and successful. Our play "The Road to Yesterday" certainly brought out the fact that in future years some of the seniors will out-shine Valentino and Mary Pickford if they choose to do so.

There have been several honors conferred on members of the class in 1926. James O'Leary was sent to the convention at Holyoke as representative from the School Council. "Cuffy" Tunstall was appointed Captain of the Traffic Squad. "Milly" Parkinson and Margaret Manghan were elected officers of the "Literary Club." While speaking of the latter, a most enjoyable Christmas party was given by the club.

A resume of the 1925-1926 athletic schedule shows us that the boys lost only one football game, came off with flying colors in three out of four inter-scholastic track meets, and won eight out of thirteen basketball games.

And that banquet! Where are the words that can express the fun?

We take a great deal of pride in the fact that our class is the first in the history of the school to have a successful "Year Book". Ask the staff and Miss Siebert about the fun of editing it! ! !

We came, we conquered, and now we must depart. We are proud of our wonderful High School, and we are well aware of the fact that very few students in any part of the country have had the advantages with which we have been blessed — the aid of an efficient faculty and beautiful and inspiring surroundings in which to work. We are glad to have spent four happy years within your walls, dear Fairhaven High, and we linger upon the thoughts of farewell. As we go our separate ways, it is with the feeling it will be the spirit of Fairhaven High that will help us to "carry on".

A GLIMPSE INTO THE FUTURE

IT is in the year 1936 and the Mardi Gras at New Orleans is in full swing. The city is a riot of color and everyone enters into the spirit of the carnival. I alone seem to be out of tune with my surroundings. Lonely, and vainly seeking for diversion, I wander down among the old antique shops along the river front. The gay abandon and joy of the carnival has not penetrated there. I enter one of the shops. It is dark, and the odor of musk fills the small room overcrowded with antiques. A little Jew in a long black smock and black skull cap comes out of the back room as I enter. Listlessly I look at the beautiful things. Then suddenly my attention is arrested by a large transparent globe that seems neither unique nor valuable. I pick it up and the Jew says, "That, Madam, is a magic globe. In it can be seen past, present, and future, as you wish." My lips curled scornfully; I do not believe in fairies or miracles, but underneath all my cynicism is a streak of curiosity which all women possess. So I buy the globe and laugh at my foolishness.

At night, though, I take out my new purchase. I wish I knew something of the Seniors of '26 at Fairhaven, but I doubt the power of the globe to reveal the secret. As I gaze at it, however, it fills with a mist which slowly clears away. I see a manor house of old England with turreted roofs and gloomy towers. Under the porte-cochere stands the latest model of the Rolls Royce. A liveried servant is holding the door. The bronze portals open, and the tall, dignified duchess of the manor steps forth. Though wrapped in sables the figure seems familiar. She turns—Ruth Avery!

Again the mist envelops the scene and once more clears away. The Great White Way of New York! One brilliant sign stands out above all the others: "Florenz Ziegfield presents Marion Smith in 'Why Men Leave Home' ",—Marion constituting the chief reason. Then the inside of the crowded theatre is revealed. On the stage, a piano, and seated at it playing vigorously is Evelyn Smith while a dainty morsel of femininity—our Marion Smith is dancing vivaciously to the strains of music. The chorus comes down the stage, and in the front row is Beatrice DeCoffe from Fairhaven, if you please.

After a while the globe again becomes a blank. This time the clearing of the mist reveals a little bungalow. On the porch a pretty matron sits sewing. A man enters the gate. The woman goes to meet him, and greeting each other tenderly they go into the house. It is Mildred Parkinson, and, naturally, the good looking man is James O'Leary.

The next picture takes me to an artist's studio with great bare walls, an open fire, and low lights. In the center of the studio is Eric Peacock the coming young artist of Mattapoissett whose latest picture, "Venus at the Pump", has excited so much comment. He is presenting to the world his model and fiancée—Heavens! Virginia Vokes. The door of the studio opens and who should walk in to have a portrait painted but Elsie Johnson.

Now a large hall appears—palms fluttering, blue and white crepe paper, an orchestra jazzing madly, uniforms everywhere. Sitting in the line of patronesses with an elderly man at her side is a sweet faced chaperone, Doris Gilbert. On the table nearby I see a school catalogue, and in large letters, "Tabor Academy, James Van Dusen—Head Master." Someone is turning the pages of the book. The face on the frontpiece is that of "Fran" Parker. A glance at the bottom shows Mrs. James Van Dusen, the school sponsor. So she married a Tabor man after all!

The globe is slowly emptying. This time it reveals a busy doctor's office. White capped nurses come and go. I look closely at one. Surely I know this light-haired girl. It is Eleanor Bly. The door of the inner office opens and the doctor steps out. I am not surprised when I find that it is Paul Cieurzo. He passes a copy of the morning paper to Eleanor, pointing as he does so to a picture on the front page. It is the president of the United States, "Al" Andrews and his secretary Hattie Le Baron!

The dim outline of Belgium and its busy city of Antwerp now comes into view. But why the crowds? It is the month of the Olympic games. I am before a river. The signal for the swimming contest has just been given. Two of the competitors forge ahead. On, on they go, gaining every second. One wins and the other comes in second. The people shout madly; I strain to see the victors. They are Cuthbert Tunstall and Ray Sylvia, former athletes of Fairhaven High. In the meanwhile, several airplanes have been circling about over head. Suddenly from one a figure descends by a parachute and lands in the midst of the people close by me. Imagine Benny Barnes one of the members of the Senior Class of '26!

What is next? A long stretch of sandy shore dotted with vari-colored parasols and crowded with bathers. Why it's Palm Beach! Who is that stylish stout lady under the vivid orange and black parasol, and appearing so much in her element as she sips lemonade and reads? Dorothea Paull. Without a doubt!

Nearby, crowds of people are gathered around a platform where a woman in mannish clothes is making a speech. I look up at a poster which reads, "Lillian Figuerido will speak on Woman's Rights".

Once more the globe becomes a blank. This time the scene changes to a beautiful avenue in California. As I glance at the shops along the avenue, my attention is arrested by one in particular—"Nottingham Tea Shoppe"—for in the open doorway stands my old classmate Marjorie Tuttle.

Farther down the avenue I catch a glimpse of a large sign "Mary Pimental's Beauty Parlor. Lotions of all Kinds Administered to Make You Beautiful".

Now the globe reveals an auditorium and on the platform a large orchestra. The leader is making an announcement "Mr. Walter Longmore the famous cornetist will now play a solo—"The End of A Perfect Day" ". I glance at the audience. In the back of the hall is seated a man whom I have seen before, I'm sure. I look closer — Gordon Hall, a newspaper reporter writing up the evening's program!

Next the Metropolitan Opera House comes into view. Crowds are pushing their way into the lobby, for tonight the "American Caruso", John Kinney is to sing. If one were permitted behind the scenes, he would undoubtedly find "Dotty" Learned, now Mrs. John Kinney, spending a few quiet moments with her husband before he goes on the stage.

My globe leads me on in the mystic light until a large plain building becomes distinct — "Waldron's School of Theology for Women". Within I catch sight of the familiar figure of "Catsie" Waldron, now dean of this world famous institute.

Next door to the latter building and directly in contrast to it, is Enos Alferes' mammoth picture house. In the ticket office in the lobby is my friend Irene Anderson. The picture now playing is "The Idyl of the Forest". The scenario was written by Louise Lopes. The leading lady is Doris Gaucher and the leading man is Robert Greenhalgh. They both have become prominent screen artists.

Across the street from the motion picture house is the church of which Milton Lord Marchant is the rector. The choir is singing, and even through the vista of years I cannot fail to recognize the voice of the famed soloist Mary Toledo.

My attention is now arrested by the beautiful strains of an "Amati" violin, and with abated breath I gaze again into the magic globe. There is a massive audience in a large auditorium. The lovely artist who stands smiling and bowing in appreciation of the applause of her audience is no other than Yvonne Demers.

Next is revealed the inside of a court room in New York. A case is before the court — Gilbert Stearns is being tried for breach of promise! Helen Hammond, Emily Hayter, and Annis Hebden are trying to prove that each should have the $50,000 that he had been sued for. The judge, "Don" Axtell is listening attentively to the lawyer for the defense, Sidney Burrell. Beulah Champegny, his secretary, sits nearby.

The scene changes to the street outside the courtroom. Such congested traffic! But with the aid of the new woman traffic cop, Edna Passmore, the crowd crosses safely. Nathaniel Pope is among the hundreds of motorists. Seated at the wheel of his latest model he is indeed a sporty figure. "Nat" is the owner of a large factory which manufactures yearly, millions of these good looking cars.

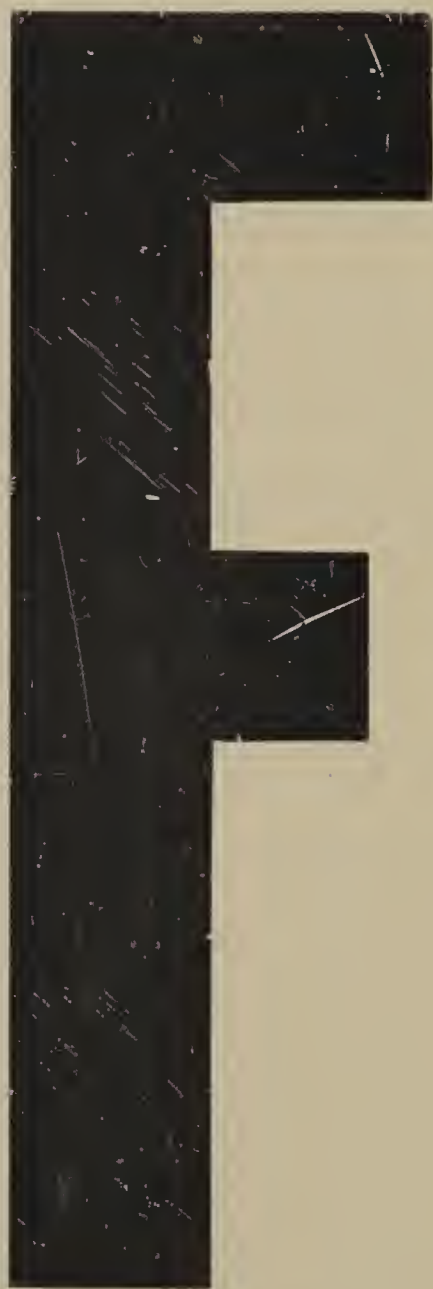

As I walk down the street a newsboy comes toward me. I buy a paper, the headlines of which have attracted my attention — "Joseph Sylvia elected Mayor of Mattapoissett". Evidently Mattapoissett is beginning to prosper.

This time the globe reveals to me dear old F. H. S. — but a changed F. H. S. As I enter Mr. Dickey's office, Robert Caswell rises from the official chair to greet me. He has just been conversing with Bessie Jenney, the new supervisor of music. Are you interested in other members of the faculty? William Bartlett is instructor in Physics. Evelyn Silveria is of the English Department, Jeanette Demers is supervisor of physical training. At the head of the entire Academic System — you won't believe it — George Gonsalves!

In the old school stadium a circus tent has been pitched. "The Blossom Boys' Circus" is in progress. At the entrance to the main tent I hear a voice calling, Right this way ladies and gents to see the biggest show on earth". It is none other than Sylvester Xavier! ! ! As I look around, my attention is arrested by group of horses running around the ring. Then some girls come out and mount them. I recognize one of the girls to be Ruth Russell, bareback rider. Next I enter a small tent where crowds are watching a snake charmer. I push nearer and see my classmate Gertrude Durfee. I go into another small tent nearby and read a sign "The Fattest Lady in the World". Heavens! Alice Broadbent. My! How ten years can change a person. Near her stands the strongest man in the world, Alexander Bruce.

Suddenly the siren of the fire engine commands the attention of all. As it rushes by, I catch a glimpse of the chief, "Stan" Pentleton, and of Rex York clanging the bell. The latter brings forth the usual laugh which has such a familiar tone, that I turn to find myself standing by Margaret Manghan now secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and Lucille Perry, President.

The globe is magical! I have seen all my classmates. Hoping to learn of my own future, I lean closer straining to catch but a glimpse. I grow tense, waiting, watching. My fingers slacken. Crash! My prize lies in atoms at my feet. Such is the working of that elusive thing called Fate.

AN APPRECIATION

To Our Coach: During our athletic career at Fairhaven High School, all participants in any sport have come in contact with the squarest and the finest of men that it is possible for boys to meet who are in need of a good guiding influence. Always giving the boy the benefit of the doubt, always allowing for little things, he deals out justice equally, as far as it is possible to do so. Maybe some have thought that they have been mistreated, but nothing is farther from fact. On his teams, all have an equal chance and all get equal shares of his coaching. He treats the poorest players with as much respect as he does his stars. He is not only a coach, he is the boy's friend and the assistant builder of his character—our Coach, EDWIN F. PIDGEON.

WITH the entrance of our class, the football team started its drive for glory and championship, in quest of which they have been most successful. It was the second year under the able coaching of Edwin F. Pidgeon, the man destined to lift Fairhaven from the ordinary ranks to that high grade where teams are spoken of as champions.

The season opened with Fairhaven High playing host to Falmouth High. We were rather out of Falmouth's class for they returned on the short end of a 63 to 0 score.

In the second game Fairhaven took into camp the tough Hope Street High, champions of Rhode Island. The final score of 7 to 0 fully tells the fierceness of the struggle.

In the first of the big games, Fairhaven, not quite up to form, was held by a huge Durfee team to a scoreless tie. It was a game replete with thrills.

The last big game of the season was scheduled for November 17. Everybody was pulling for the fighting blue team to finish its first undefeated season, to defeat New Bedford, if possible, for the first time in twelve long years! The first half ended in a no score period with the playing about even. In the second half, Fairhaven carried the fight to New Bedford, and then with New Bedford's ball in mid-field a fumble, Brad Terry, alert Blue end, scooping up the loose oval raced for a touchdown. Holland added the extra point. The game ended 7 to 2 and a hysterical crowd ran wild over the field carrying the victorious Blue players on their shoulders. That night the fans celebrated by touring New Bedford and letting the world in general know that they were victorious.

On December 15 a testimonial banquet was tendered to the squad by the townspeople. The squad presented to Coach Pidgeon a set of golf clubs and the townspeople gave him a handsome gold watch. Speeches were made by Mr. Pidgeon, Mr. Dickey, Captain Tunstall, and others. The players were given coat sweaters, and John Allen, cheer leader, was presented with a gold megaphone. The letter men elected Johnny Hawkins, the big full back, to the captaincy of the 1923 season.

The following men were chosen on the All Bristol County Football Team:—Brad Terry, Alfred Sylvia, Hilton Holland, Fred Pflug, and John Hawkins.

After one of the most successful football seasons in the history of the school in 1922, Coach Eddie Pidgeon was out to build another championship team. With six veterans in the line-up, the season opened against Hope High. Late in the third period, Hope completed a forward pass for a touchdown. The Blue team fought desperately, but could not tie the score and Hope carried home the bacon 7 to 0.

Our luck changed, though, when we turned back the Red and Black invaders from Fall River. The score was 7 to 0, after one of the most thrilling of games.

With the balance on the victory side of the ledger, the boys went to play an undefeated Whitman High team. The Fairhaven team had eleven stars which accounted for their 7 to 6 victory.

The final battle! Fairhaven had never won a game at New Bedford, and but once before had the Blue team held the Red to a tie. New Bedford was the favorite and was out to see that Fairhaven did not boast a victory over them. Our boys played the defensive for three quarters of the game, and the Blue broke the long string of victories on Sargent Field by holding New Bedford to a scoreless tie.

Members of the team honored by being chosen for the All Bristol County Team were: "Toughy" Sylvia, Captain John Hawkins, Carl Hirst, Fred Pflug and Paul Cieurzo.

On December 17 about two hundred townspeople gathered at the Town Hall to pay tribute to the Fairhaven High Championship Football team. The players were presented with gold footballs while they gave Mr. Pidgeon a sport jacket. The speakers for the occasion were: Joseph McGlone, war hero and Harvard football and baseball star, Mr. Pidgeon and Captain John Hawkins. At the close of the banquet, Paul Cieurzo was elected captain for the 1924 season.

Football season rolled around again as it has the habit of doing, and followers of the Blue and White looked on in dismay, for the veteran material Coach Pidgeon had to work with consisted of Captain Cieurzo and Robert Sullivan guards, and quarterback Holland.

Again the season opened with Hope High of Providence furnishing the opposition. The Blue eleven turned in a 14 to 0 victory in a game in which the invaders were outclassed from whistle to whistle.

Whitman, the team Fairhaven defeated the previous year 7 to 6, was listed for the third game, and a game it was. When the final whistle was blown the Fairhaven team were the tired, victorious winners of a 6 to 0 game.

A new-comer was Fairhaven's fourth opponent, Dedham High School from the suburbs of Boston,—but they all looked alike to the Blue warriors! The final score read Fairhaven 19 and Dedham 7.

It was a tired, bruised, and battered eleven that trotted onto the Fall River gridiron, and the Blue fans worried over the outcome of the game. In ten minutes the lightning attack and the keen ball-following of the Fairhaven team amassed fifteen points, but wearied from previous games and early exertions, the light, Blue team could not hold the gigantic Durfee team, and Fall River scored. At the start of the second half, Durfee again marched up the field for a touchdown, but with everyone giving a little bit more than ever before, the Durfee attack was slowed up and finally halted until the end of the game. Then a jubilant but weary Blue team was carried off the field with a 15 to 14 victory.

For the first time in years, Fairhaven was the favorite to defeat New Bedford, due to their impressive record of eight wins and no defeats. Fairhaven started early to show New Bedford how to play football by smearing play after play. A sensational sixty-two yard run by Blue backs brought the first score. The third quarter had barely started when a New Bedford back fumbled and another Fairhaven score was chalked up. With a fourteen point lead, Fairhaven played defensive football, but two poor Fairhaven kicks resulted in a New Bedford score. This was a dying effort, however, as Fairhaven showed then another touchdown to put the game "on ice". The decisive 20 to 7 victory gave Fairhaven the Bristol County championship for the third time.

On December 17, Santa Claus came to Fairhaven and in the form of a testimonial banquet the "Blue Streak", as it was dubbed by sport writers, received tribute after tribute and finally their gifts. The first eleven received gold footballs, white sweaters, and letters. The squad presented Coach Pidgeon with a beautiful silver plaque, suitably engraved, and a tennis racquet, while the townspeople gave him a check for one hundred dollars. Speeches were made by prominent townspeople, Coach Pidgeon, and Captain Cieurzo. The letter men elected Robert Sullivan, a guard for three years, to the captaincy of the 1925 season.

The following players were named on the All Bristol County Elevens: Paul Cieurzo, John Sylvia, Harold Macomber, Ray Eldred, Charles Holland, and Cuthbert Tunstall.

Losing five first string players by graduation, Coach Pidgeon began assembling another championship team. On September 28 a team somewhat heavier, faster, and more powerful than that of the previous year, trotted onto the gridiron to battle for the fourth year in succession, Hope High of Providence. The final score was 13 to 0, Fairhaven.

On Columbus day, Swampscott High School, champions of the North Shore League, were entertained at Fairhaven. The resultant effort of the "Blue Streak" was a 26 to 0 win and one of their best games of the year.

Due to the fact that Fairhaven was not to play New Bedford in football, it made the big game of the schedule the one with Durfee High of Fall River. The defensive line play of the Blue held the invaders in check while the versatile Blue backfield ran wild. The final score was 14 to 0.

With the record of seven victories and no defeats, Fairhaven High journeyed eighty-five miles to meet the best team in the State, the Salem High School—a team that had not been defeated for two years and who later went to Florida to defeat the Florida State champions by a crushing score. With all this in mind, backed by one thousand townspeople and before a crowd of about eight thousand, Fairhaven, after being scored upon three times in the first half, the result of stage fright and weakness after the long journey, came back to play this wonder team even for the remainder of the game, and to redeem itself in the eyes of its supporters and everybody else who witnessed that nightmare of the first half. It meant that the greatest team in the history of Fairhaven High School was defeated by a score of 20 to 0, and that does not fully tell the story of the battle by a team that was the greatest in the State.

On December 18, the largest crowd that ever gathered at the Town Hall to honor a Fairhaven football team, about two hundred strong, paid tribute to the team of 1925. The principal speech of the evening was made by Coach Pidgeon in a defense of football. Other speeches were made by Mr. Dickey, Mr. Prior, Reverend Parker, and the redoubtable John I. Bryant. Captain Paul F. Cieurzo presented to Mr. Pidgeon a regulation size football on an ebony stand, a gift from the squad. William Dexter was elected captain for 1926. The first team and two substitutes were presented with gold footballs.

The following players were chosen on the All Bristol County Football Team by vote of coaches and captains of the Bristol County Football Teams: Paul F. Cieurzo, Cuthbert Tunstall, William Dexter and Harold Macomber.

BASKET-BALL

1922-23

OUR first year in school, Hilt Holland was captain of the basket-ball team. When the season opened it bade fair to be a good one, because with the opening game our boys triumphed over B. C. Aggies. This team had always been reputed as a good outfit. All in all, the team that year won six games and tied one out of eleven. The games lost were all dropped by small margins. Among the greatest feats of that season were the wins over New Bedford and Durfee.

In our first game with Durfee we came out on top, after the flashy Hilt Holland scored a field basket that put us one point ahead of the opponents. The final score was Fairhaven 20—Durfee 19.

In the tussles with New Bedford, the first was a tie. After battling six periods of fast basket-ball, Charley Tripp, who was substituted in one of the overtime periods, proved the hero of the game when he let a shot go from the middle of the floor with two seconds to play. Followers of the team will never forget that shot!

The next meeting with New Bedford was again in their own gym,—a playoff of the tie. With the Blue winning, it was the first victory over New Bedford in twelve years.

The game in our own gym was similar to the first one played in New Bedford. It ended with the two teams deadlocked with the score twenty all.

Shortly after the over time period got underway, Freddy Pflug shot his first basket of the season, and the period wasn't over until each wearer of the blue had contributed a basket to aid in piling up the score, which when the game ended, stood Fairhaven 33 New Bedford 22. The schedule was as follows:

Fairhaven	42	B. County Aggies	10
Fairhaven	21	Durfess Textile	10
Fairhaven	57	Wareham	8
Fairhaven	20	Durfee High	19
Fairhaven	16	Tabor	24
Fairhaven	14	Durfee High	24
Fairhaven	(43)	New Bedford	(43)
Fairhaven	17	Vocational	22
Fairhaven	29	Vocational	33
Fairhaven	40	New Bedford	31
Fairhaven	33	New Bedford	22

1923-24

At the opening of the basket-ball season of 1923-24 there was an abundance of good material, and with our old friend "Freddy" as leader of the crew, the season looked like a good one. Unfortunately there was a lack of co-operation among certain players, and a few games that should have been won were chalked up as wins for the opponents. Two members of our class earned letters that season—Prescott Hoxie and Jimmie O'Leary.

One of the games was with the Hawaiian Five, a team composed entirely of Hawaiian men. They were a fairly good team, but our boys were too fast for them and they were obliged to admit defeat. The Hawaiian team entertained the spectators before and between the halves of the game with selections on their string instruments, and with tumbling and acrobatic tricks.

The most interesting game of the season was the one played with Durfee in our own "gym". It will always be remembered as one of the closest tussles staged on our floor. The final score was Durfee 20—Fairhaven 19.

The following was the schedule for the year:

Fairhaven	36	Holy Family	15
Fairhaven	19	Durfee	20
Fairhaven	39	Hawaiians	20
Fairhaven	32	B. M. C. Durfee Textile	19
Fairhaven	39	Dartmouth	3
Fairhaven	22	New Bedford	35
Fairhaven	17	New Bedford	25
Fairhaven	18	Durfee	43

1924-25

This season opened with very poor prospects in view. Our Coach had a tough proposition staring him in the face—that of building a team out of very poor material. Graduation had taken away many stars like Freddy Pflug and Don Barnes. Members of the squad of the preceding year were Carley Holland, Prescott Hoxie and Jimmie O'Leary.

As was expected, the season started off in very poor style, the team dropping the first five games. The team at this time suffered the loss of one of its best men in Carley Holland.

There were only two games worthy of mention. One was with New Bedford in the rival's "gym". The boys put up a stiff battle but with New Bedford leading by one point in the last few minutes of play, a certain New Bedford player named Tripp dropped in an unconscious shot. This ended the scoring and the game ended with the score 13 to 10 in favor of the Red.

The other praiseworthy game was the second one with Vocational in our own gym, the final score being 16 to 15 in our favor. Our boys turned the trick after a hard fought battle, and the team deserved all the praise it received for the feat, because of the fact that it was the first time in five years that a Fairhaven High basket-ball team had defeated a vocational quintet.

The following is the schedule:

Fairhaven	26	Holy Family	28
Fairhaven	17	Vocational	29
Fairhaven	16	Durfee	41
Fairhaven	25	Hope	29
Fairhaven	10	New Bedford	13
Fairhaven	16	Vocational	15
Fairhaven	28	Dartmouth	18
Fairhaven	32	Prov. Tech.	26
Fairhaven	16	New Bedford	33

1925-26

The basketball season of 1925-26 was on the whole quite successful, the team winning eight out of the thirteen games played. Although some of the games that were won were not the type that is desired, some of those in which we were defeated were very fast, close games.

The team showed up best against Vocational and Durfee; the first games with these respective schools being the best played all season. In the first Durfee game we were nosed out in the last quarter to be beaten by the small margin of three points. In the first encounter with Vocational, the team showed some of its best form, but the basket shooting was not what it should have been and we were defeated.

Pop McGowan and George Cooke were among the leading scorers in the county and we can quite safely say that "Pop" was as good a center as any in the county.

The following is the schedule:—

Fairhaven	66	Falmouth	9
Fairhaven	38	Barrington	18
Fairhaven	24	Bristol Aggies	27
Fairhaven	17	Dartmouth	13
Fairhaven	27	Bridgewater	19
Fairhaven	15	Durfee	18
Fairhaven	14	Vocational	25
Fairhaven	24	W. Harwich	8
Fairhaven	12	Vocational	19
Fairhaven	31	Providence Y Prep	21
Fairhaven	22	Durfee	33
Fairhaven	29	Falmouth	16
Fairhaven	20	B. C. Aggies	19

TRACK

1922-1926

TRACK like all other sports has prospered under the coaching of Eddie Pidgeon. In the four years of track competition, Fairhaven has not lost a dual track meet and has scored in all but one state-wide meet held in Boston. In addition, in 1923, Fairhaven crack relay team went to the Bowdoin Inter-scholastics and defeated Lawrence.

Fairhaven has defeated in dual competition New Bedford, Providence, Fall River, Tabor Academy and others. In the four years, Fairhaven has always won the Bristol County Track and Field Championships both out and indoor.

In State Meets the following boys have won places: Sherman Rounsville, Hilt Holland, Charles Tripp, John Hawkins, Paul Cieurzo and George Damon.

All but three records have been broken in the past four years. The following hold field and track records:—

100 yd. — Sherman Rounsville
 220 yd. — Sherman Rounsville
 440 yd. — Sherman Rounsville
 120 yd. Hurdles — Hilt Holland
 Shot Put — Paul Cieurzo
 Broad Jump — John Sylvia
 Pole Vault — Paul Hirst

BASEBALL

1923

THE season opened with the Durfee game, and when the game was over our rights of a good season were rather shadowed. The team consisted of a fine bunch of ball players until it was at bat and then—well they just couldn't hit! Hawkins did connect for a couple of good bingles now and then but he was an exception. However, the boys played well and worked hard under the able leadership of Captain Hilt Holland.

The team did one thing that will be remembered and that was to force the "highly touted team" from the big city across the river, into extra innings. Our boys fought hard but again their hitting failed, and the score after twelve innings of good ball was New Bedford 15, Fairhaven 11. The following was the schedule for 1923.

Fairhaven	3	Durfee	15
Fairhaven	2	Holy Family	3
Fairhaven	11	New Bedford	15
Fairhaven	4	Holy Family	2
Fairhaven	7	Vocational	3
Fairhaven	2	New Bedford	4
Fairhaven	13	Textile	2
Fairhaven	3	Durfee	5
Fairhaven	4	Vocational	5

1924

"Toughey" Silvia was captain of the 1924 season which had one of the shortest schedules in the history of the school. The team played but eight games that season and only three were won. The schedule called for nine games, but owing to rain one of the games with New Bedford was called off. This was later forfeited to the New Bedford crew.

The best game played during this season was the one with Durfee on our own diamond; the final score was 9-8 in favor of Durfee. The Durfee coach remarked after the game that he was really afraid that the blue would pin a defeat on his star outfit. The schedule for games in 1924 was as follows:

Fairhaven	5	New Bedford	8
Fairhaven	8	Durfee	9
Fairhaven	7	Vocational	5
Fairhaven	13	Vocational	3
Fairhaven	4	Holy Family	5
Fairhaven	6	Holy Family	7
Fairhaven	7	Tabor	9
Fairhaven	9	Tabor	5

Of the eleven games played during 1925, the team won five. Carlcly Holland was captain and pitcher, and a fairly good team was built up. It had a bad ailment (one that most all our baseball teams have had) that of not being able to hit.

Of the games played, the most interesting were those with New Bedford and Durfee — both on our own field. The scores were 2 - 0 and 3 - 2. During this season, the team took two games from Vocational, dropped two to New Bedford, split with Dartmouth, trounced Wareham, split with Tabor and dropped two to Durfee.

The game with Dartmouth at Dartmouth was the prize game of the year, but we're not saying what kind of a prize was given! The game was played in Dartmouth at a place called Gidley stadium and the final score was 17 - 14. The Dartmouth boys had an advantage owing to the fact that they knew more about each potato furrow on the Gidley stadium diamond. A cow that was wandering around center field narrowly escaped being hit by a line drive off Bill Dexter's bat! A farmer also threatened to keep the ball if the boys didn't stop trampling over his newly planted corn.

It sure was some game! The schedule for the year was as follows:

Fairhaven	4	Vocational	3
Fairhaven	3	Vocational	2
Fairhaven	14	Dartmouth	17
Fairhaven	6	Dartmouth	5
Fairhaven	0	Durfee	4

Fairhaven	2	Durfee	3
Fairhaven	0	New Bedford	2
Fairhaven	7	New Bedford	14
Fairhaven	7	Wareham	2
Fairhaven	6	Tabor	8
Fairhaven	5	Tabor	2

1926

Fairhaven High will play 12 baseball games this spring, the maximum number sanctioned by the athletic authorities. The usual contests with Tabor, Dartmouth, Durfee and Vocational are listed, while three new-comers to the schedule are Falmouth, Providence Commercial and Needham. The following is the complete schedule:

April 28—Tabor Academy at Marion.
 May 7—Needham High at Fairhaven.
 May 8—Dartmouth High at Fairhaven.
 May 12—Falmouth High at Falmouth.
 May 15—Dartmouth High at Dartmouth.
 May 19—Durfee High at Fall River.
 May 22—New Bedford Vocational at Fairhaven.
 May 24—Durfee High at Fairhaven.
 May 26—Falmouth High at Fairhaven.
 June 2—Tabor Academy at Fairhaven.
 June 9—Providence Commercial at Fairhaven.
 June 11—New Bedford Vocational at Victory Park.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

THE Girls' Athletic Association of the Fairhaven High School was organized in January 1922. The object of this organization was to promote and foster inter-class and inter-school athletics, thus emphasizing fair play, loyalty, courtesy, self-reliance, alertness, promptness and persistency. "Play the Game" was the motto adopted.

All girls in the High School are eligible for membership. This organization allows no girl to take part in any athletic event unless she is in good health and is free from all injuries. This rule teaches the girls to look after their health, and seek ways of improving it. The girls also have to follow the rules of eligibility of the Massachusetts High School Athletic Association in order to play on any team.

In recognition of the girls' work in various teams of the school, emblems are awarded at the end of the school year. The awarding of merits is made as follows:

- D—15 points monogram
- C—30 points numerals
- B—45 points school letter
- A—60 points gold athletic pin.

This organization has proved to be one of the most successful in the school. Its activities have spread not only to athletics, but to many other fields. "Welcome" gatherings have been given to the first year pupils so that they might become better acquainted with the upper class-men. Hikes through the country roads and woods have been great fun, not mentioning the good times that have been had on the "hot-dog" and marshmallow roasts which have been held at Pope Beach.

The sick committee has attended faithfully to its duty. Flowers have been sent to brighten the sick room and attractive baskets of fruit have tempted the appetite of many an invalid.

In 1924 a "health code" was adopted by Miss Ruth Cady. As a result at various times in the school year the health of the girls has been checked and marked improvements have been noted.

The present officers of the organization for the year 1925-26 are:

TO OUR FACULTY ADVISER

WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1926 OF THE FAIRHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL, TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE FOR THE HELPFUL INTEREST, AND DILIGENT, INSPIRING LEADERSHIP WITH WHICH OUR FACULTY ADVISER, MARGARET SIEBERT, HAS GUIDED THE CLASS. HER UNTIRING EFFORTS MADE OUR SENIOR PLAY, "THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY," THE SUCCESS THAT IT WAS. WE DEEPLY APPRECIATE HER AID IN MAKING POSSIBLE THIS YEAR BOOK, THE FIRST THE FAIRHAVEN SENIORS HAVE EVER HAD.

THE SENIOR PLAY

A Junior's Impression

THE fatal Friday evening having arrived, we bent our foot-steps towards the Town Hall. This was our last chance to see the Senior Play from in front of the footlights and laugh at the expense of our superiors.

As soon as we were seated, smiling young ladies relieved us of our hard earned cash, in exchange for a sweet, sticky liquid called punch. As we gazed about us, we noted with some amusement that the policemen, supposedly keeping the exits clear, were blocking every doorway. Then the orchestra crashed into the overture and the music entertained us until the curtain rose on the first act.

The latter was a pleasure to see. The stage was well filled with actors and we watched with bated breath for a collision. But no, the characters glided about as smoothly as you please. "Cuffy" Tunstall brought down the house by his evident enjoyment of the "d—ns" afforded him by his lines. The speech by "Goosey" Stearns, "I don't feel such a fool as I look" met with the hearty approval of all who knew him. Mildred Parkinson made a hit from the start. She was under the influence of some Cheshire Cheese which must have been fairly powerful, when you consider the mixup it caused.

We were delighted during the second act to see Catherine Waldron handle the servant problem (Ben Barnes) with both hands. By the way, we are still wondering where Ben got that red nose. Of course, the big event of this scene was the fight which was a humdinger. "Goosey" dashed on and off in a breezy manner, but refused to be a dime novel hero and lick ten men all by himself.

Of course, there must be a "dastardly villain" in every play and "Nat" Pope took the part so well we hated him. That is, so long as he was a villain! Of course, later on, he became an assistant hero so we had to change our views again.

Even the little freshmen appreciated Dorothea Paull's perfect interpretation of the passionate gypsy girl. Her acting and costume realized the part even down to the ever present cutlery.

Marion Smith as the witch drew our sympathy when she was so cruelly treated by the villain "Nat" Pope, curse him! Ruth Avery, both as the queen and in the modern setting was fine.

The last act is still slightly confused in our minds owing to the fact that we were dazzled by the presentation of the flowers. However, one thing that greatly impressed us was the speed of "Goosey's" love making. It was a pleasure to watch him.

We also want to mention the tableau scenes. They were extremely effective.

And now to wind up our discourse, we wish to remark that the play was a success, and we hope that next year's will be as good. Ahem! !

SENIOR CLASS MEMBERS OF ORCHESTRA

THE ORCHESTRA

THE first High School orchestra rehearsal was held on Friday, November 3, 1911 in the high school auditorium. It was directed by Mr. Clarence Jones. The first public appearance of this orchestra was on December 8, 1911 at the Senior Class Play.

The Fairhaven High School Orchestra of 1926, under the direction of its leader, Mr. Jones, gave its annual concert the latter part of May at the Town Hall.

The orchestra this year was represented by eleven violins—Helen Hammond, Yvonne Demers, Beulah Champegny, Mary O'Leary, Astrid Phillips, Louise Emin, Melba Texiera, Thomas Perry, Hugh Cameron, Walter Roos and Albert Bates; a cello—Dorothea Paull; two saxaphones—Palma Champegny and Alfred Andrews; six cornets—Gladys Hebden, Bradford Blossom, Walter Longmore, Allen Gammans, Arthur Coe and Harold Sylvada; a clarinet—Clarence Blossom; a drummer—Filbert Silveria. Miss Rosamond Simmons has been pianist.

The orchestra either in part or as a whole has given its services during the year at various times; at the Senior Assembly held in November in the school auditorium; at the Senior Play, "The Road to Yesterday" held at the Fairhaven Town Hall in February on the twenty-sixth and at a concert given in the High School Auditorium in the month of February.

THE LITERARY CLUB

THE Literary Club, whose object is to further the aims of the English Department by promoting an appreciation of the drama, the art of debate, the modern novel and modern poetry, began its activities for this school year by electing the following officers: President, Frederick Moss; Vice-President, Mildred O. Parkinson; Treasurer, James Hossley; and Secretary, Margaret Manghan. The membership is restricted to those of the three upper classes who are able to carry a "B" in English.

At Christmas time, a party was enjoyed by members of the Club. Mr. Dickey and Miss Paull gave appropriate readings and Mr. Erickson and Miss Toledo rendered vocal selections. Miss Siebert accompanied on the piano. Santa then appeared and distributed gifts from his well filled bag.

The last week in March, Mr. Ranlett, librarian at the Millicent Library lectured on "How to Write Manuscripts for Magazines". His talk was most instructive.

On May 27, Mr. George H. Tripp, librarian at the New Bedford Public Library spoke before the Club and its guests on "Books". Mr. Tripp's lecture was made interesting by a resume of the development of books, and a beautiful copy of a book, which he had on display, made four hundred years ago by a monk. The lecture concluded his talk with a list of books which would prove most helpful to students to read.

LA BONNE COMPAGNIE

LA BONNE COMPAGNIE was organized in 1920 for the purpose of promoting social intercourse between the parents of the members and the faculty and student body. Membership to the club was eligible only to students enrolled in the three upper French classes. Miss Susan Gifford was chosen faculty advisor.

In former years La Bonne Compagnie has staged several French plays for the benefit of the school as a whole. During 1922 the club gave "La Surprise d'Isidore" at the Unitarian Parish House for the Allen Class and their guests. In 1924 it gave before the school "Christmas Kalends of Provence" by T. A. Janvier. In 1925 it entertained the mothers of members with tableaux illustrating old French songs, and tea was served in the library.

This year the following short plays have been given as a part of class work:

"Le Medecin Malgre Lui", "Dans un Ascenseur", "La Surprise d'Isidore", and "Les Deux Sourds". It is planned to give "Le Voyage de M. Perrichon" during the last term.

The officers of La Bonne Compagnie for 1925-1926 are as follows:

President—Mildred O. Parkinson

Vice-President—Hope E. Dudgeon

Secretary—Frederick Moss

Treasurer—Charles Holland

THE LATIN CLUB

THE "Carpe Diem Sodalitas" was formed to give the Latin pupils an added interest in the language. "Carpe Diem" means "Improve Each Day". The officers this year are:

President—Ruth Avery

Vice-President—Granville Prior

Secretary and Treasurer—Edith Kenney

Chairman of Entertainment Committee—Constance Dudgeon

Two pins are awarded each year, one to the pupil who has no mistakes in the vocabulary play-off for first year Latin, and the other to the pupil of the three upper classes who excels in vocabulary work. These pins are held as long as the winner continues to win; if he fails they are given to someone else who has had a perfect score. This is continued from year to year. Miss Ransom and Miss Walsh are holding the first year pin, and no one is holding the second one at present.

Two years ago there was a grand play-off of all the vocabularies which had been given. All the classes took part. First each class played off; then the winners played off. Finally the contestants narrowed down to Miss McAfee, Miss Avery, and Prior. Gold pins were awarded to those three as the winners. These pins were kept by the winners.

There are two rival syntax teams—one Sophomore, the other Freshman. So far this year, Miss Owen's team has been ahead of Miss Mitchel's in the second year class. In the first year contest Bradford Mitchel's team has won more victories than Miss Ransom's. As a result Miss Mitchel, and Miss Ransom's teams will have to provide the food for the club picnic to be held in June. The teams are now playing off to see who will furnish the liquid refreshments. At present it looks as if it would be the same two teams. This is hard luck.

The A and B class will decide by a vocabulary contest with the C class which shall play the host's part at our coming celebration.

The Carpe Diem is very proud of the fact that two of the three home pupils of the class of '26 are now members of the club, and the third was a member until recently when a programme conflict made it necessary for her to drop out.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

THE Commercial Club was founded in 1920 for the purpose of getting together for social intercourse, the students of the Commercial Course.

The Club has an initiation, several parties, and an outing during the year.

Last fall the dignified seniors initiated the Juniors. After eating the snake's eyes, grasping the reptiles from Africa and being branded with the symbols of the club they took the M. Y. O. B. pledge:

"I solemnly swear by the hair of my head
To each night do my shorthand before going to bed.
I'll not park under street lamps or sit on a stone wall
For the next day in class my shorthand will fall".

A very successful Christmas party was held in the gymnasium. John Kinney Santa Claus had a large pack as each pupil ordered a present for the one whose name he had drawn. Miss Gurney our faculty advisor was presented with a casserole.

The faculty and student body were guests of the Commercial Club at an afternoon party on April Fool's day. Beulah Champegny was hostess. A solo dance by Ellen Meal and a saxophone solo by Al Andrews were the features of the party. Favors were received by all.

The Club is now anticipating a mighty enjoyable "Hot-Dawg" roast in June at Fort Phoenix, an annual affair.

The officers of the club, which are elected from the members of the Junior Commercial students to take office during the Senior year, are as follows for 1925—1926:

President — Margaret Manghan
Secretary-Treasurer — Edna Passmore

THE DEBATING CLUB

THE Debating Club was first organized April, 1921 for the purpose of promoting argumentative speaking. During these four years of our class, inter-class debates have been carried on in which the seniors participated.

So many other activities have been expected from the members of the Senior Class that it was decided to center the debating work for 1925-1926 with the first two classes.

Early in the fall the Sophomore Class met to elect a debating council which should function with the officers of the Debating Society. This consisted of five members.

The debating work for this year has been devoted almost entirely to inter-class debates between the various sections of the Sophomores.

It was decided that a debate should be the Sophomore Assembly Program for this last winter. It was given in the Assembly Hall before the student body. The subject, "Resolved that the United States should have a separate department of Aviation", was upheld by Walter Kuechler, Marie Rousseau, and Dolores Rousseau, and opposed by Marion Morse, Edith Mitchell, and Ruth Ritchie, and Miriam Owen as alternate. The decision of the Judges was in favor of the negative.

A debating team consisting of Marie Rousseau, Marion Morse, and Walter Henshaw are preparing the negative side of the debate with the Junior Debating Society of New Bedford. On June 4th in the School Auditorium they will debate the question, "Resolved that the United States should have air forces that will compare proportionately with other countries." This will be the first public debate of the Sophomore Society and will conclude their work for this year.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

THE Student Council was organized in 1924. Its aim was to act upon problems dealing with the academic and social sides of school life. Each home-room elected a certain number of members to serve on the Council. "Eddie" Dubiel was elected the first President.

Among the early problems which the council considered was the establishment of a Traffic Squad in the school.

Shortly after school opened in September, 1925, a meeting of the Council was called to elect officers for the year. Those elected were "Jimmie" O'Leary, President, and Mildred Parkinson, Secretary.

On February 22, 1926 a State Convention of Student Councils was held in Holyoke, Massachusetts. The delegates sent from our school were "Jimmie" O'Leary and Fred Simmons. They brought back interesting and helpful accounts of the workings of other Student Councils.

Among the subjects for discussion at the various meetings during the year the following have been taken up:

1. Setting a standard for eligibility of officers and members to the Council.
2. Reorganization of Service Points.
3. Organization of a Good Sportsmanship Award Committee.
4. Decision of making Student Council responsible for posting all notices regarding student activity.
5. Advisability of having all members of Traffic Squad approved by the Student Council.

THE TRAFFIC SQUAD

THE Traffic Squad was organized in 1924. Its purpose was to aid in the problem of regulating efficiently the passing of the students to and from classes. "Carley" Holland was elected Captain, Mildred Parkinson and "Cuffy" Tunstall, Lieutenants.

After a year of successful operations, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: "Cuffy" Tunstall, Captain; Mildred Parkinson and Fred Simmons, Lieutenants.

Perhaps one of the pleasantest memories of the Senior members of the Traffic Squad to look back upon during their last year at school, will be the part they took in the celebration of the "send-off" of Mrs. Broughton. It was their duty to form the line of march when the entire school paraded to Fort Phoenix, and to escort the colors. It was they, too, who lead the cheers as "The Sapphire" steamed slowly out of the harbor, and saluted the jubilant crowds of school children gathered in groups along the shore or high up on the rocks.

In addition to regular traffic work at the school, the Squad has taken it upon itself to conduct visitors around the school, and to entertain the Eighth Grade of the Rogers Grammar School on a tour of inspection, in order to interest them in the High School.

We hope that the Traffic Squad of the future will continue to render effective service to the school.
